This introductory workshop is intended for anyone interested in improving their personal relationships (individuals as well as couples) and for professionals interested in using Relationship Enhancement® in their work (e.g. counselors, social workers, human resource specialists, educators, managers). It is a prerequisite for the Advanced Workshops (next one on April 14) and the Professional Workshops (next one on April 27 & 28)

FRANCE SARRADON, MA, LPCC, LMFT, leads Relationship Enhancement® Basic Workshops for individuals and couples, Advanced Workshops, and RE® Trainings and Supervisions for Professionals. She also works with businesses and organizations. She has integrated into her practice a wide variety of approaches, her multicultural dimension, her curiosity and humor, and more than 40 years of experience.
